

BRANDI MILLER

Birth and Postpartum Doula Breastfeeding Peer Counselor, Integrative Lactation and Feeding Specialist

Hi, my name is Brandi. I am an inclusive birth and postpartum doula, WIC Breastfeeding Peer Counselor, Integrative Lactation and Feeding Specialist. My approach to birth work is non-judgmental, family-centered, and practical; all of the cornerstones of her everyday life. As your doula, she incorporates movement through labor, encourages a peaceful environment, and is a patient and resourceful guide from pregnancy through postpartum. Brandi knows there is no "one size fits all" when it comes to birth and provides support that is centered around your vision and desires for birth.
