

Meet Our Provider

Sheila Bawany, MD
Palliative Care

Biography

Dr. Sheila Bawany is a dedicated and compassionate physician that is committed to guiding patients and their families through complex medical decisions with clarity, empathy and evidence-based care. She received her MD from University of South Florida College of Medicine. She completed her residency in Emergency Medicine at University of Central Florida College of Medicine and her fellowship in Hospice & Palliative Care Medicine at Lincoln Medical Center. She is also a member of the American College of Emergency Physicians and the Society of Academic Emergency Medicine.

Areas of Focus

- Chronic condition management and treatment
- Physical, mental, and emotional support
- Symptom management for those with serious illness (i.e. pain, nausea, fatigue, shortness of breath)

Languages

English

Location:

Walsh Ambulatory Pavilion

19-20 Brookhaven Avenue, 1st Floor
Far Rockaway, NY 11691

718-EHS-DOCS (718-347-3627)